

Scott Robertson and his family have lived in downtown North Bay for a decade. He is a father, a spouse, and a passionate advocate for progress. He earned a degree in History from Carleton University and is a proud graduate of the Bachelor of Education program at Nipissing University.

Scott is honoured to serve the City of North Bay in both English and French (vous pouvez lui contacter en français).